

DID YOU KNOW?

- * Did you know that you should never ever pay an agency to represent you?
- * Did you know that all modeling schools and most modeling conventions are a complete waste of your time and money?
- * Learn why you don't need to pay for expensive photography in order to get your modeling career started and exactly what to do instead to save tons of money.
- * Discover how to set up your own meetings with the most powerful agents in the world and how to get them to sign you on the spot.
- * Did you know that height doesn't really matter unless you want to be a runway model and that most runway shows never pay the models even a single dime?
- * Did you know that in order to be a financially successful model you are going to need more than just one agency in your home town? Let me teach you how to create an international network of working relationships that can skyrocket your career to the top and set you up for life.
- * Learn what the standard modeling contract looks like, what to expect in the meetings you will be taking with agencies, and how to negotiate contract offers like a seasoned pro.
- * Find out which agencies hold "model's apartments" for their models making extended stays in the fashion capitals amazingly affordable, sometimes as low as $50/night, while getting your career started.
- * Learn why it typically takes models months and months to get paid for jobs and how you can get around this issue by knowing one simple industry technique.
- * Find out which jobs really pay the big bucks and which jobs don't necessarily pay but are just as important in developing a successful modeling career.
- * Learn which documents to acquire in order to work overseas without breaking any international laws and how to keep customs officials happy.
- * Know exactly how to diplomatically deal with inappropriate sexual advances on a photo shoot to avoid ruining your career.
- * Learn how you can keep the expensive designer clothing you will be wearing on your photo shoots and start building an incredible wardrobe.
- * Learn how to protect yourself from the many modeling rip-offs and scams early on in your career that are designed to hook beginners just like yourself.